

Pauline "Polly" Sandkulla-Caraghar was our association's seventh president serving from 1977-1978. She was very efficient and innovative introducing many new programs and promoted outreach to members. Polly was one of three Park and Recreation Commissioners of the City of San Bruno appointed in May 1970 along with two other CAPRCBM active members Eleanor Mutto and David Nigel. Polly moved up through our Association chairs encouraged by our third President, Sheila Hyman of the City of Pacifica Recreation, Parks, and Beaches Commission. Polly was appointed to the San Mateo County Parks and Recreation Commission when she assumed the CAPRCBM presidency. Polly was also selected to the City of San Bruno Planning Commission.

Although a native of Michigan she lived most of her life along the California coast from Eureka, San Bruno, to Half Moon Bay. Polly retired after 24 years in the car business as sales manager. She was an accomplished tennis player, musician, writer, cook and loving wife.
